Dear Ian,

I write having recently received the very encouraging report from the SIAMS inspection which took place at St Wilfrid's School in earlier this term. I offer my congratulations to you and the pupils, staff and governors on achieving an Outstanding grading.

Please be affirmed in your role as Headteacher following this review. I note that the inspector comments on the exceptional leadership of the school at every level. It is clear that the distinctive Christian ethos of the school shines through in a very effective way. Thank you for your personal commitment to upholding the high standards in every area of school life.

I assure you of my ongoing prayers for the whole school community during this summer term and beyond.

With all good wishes,

Bishop Paul
